

Your mission will consist of:

Welcoming and advising the client: understanding expectations, selecting products and services, and formulating proposals, arguments for making the sale a reality.

Ensure an effective commercial relationship during the sales process (before, during, and after-sales)

Actively participate in the development of your travel agency activity.

Carry out reservation and sale operations.

For more details on the desired profile, hiring conditions and contract terms, click here.